PRESS RELEASE DETAILS

October 12, 2021

 Download this Press Release **

Team DC Announces Two New Team Members for Fall 2021 Event

WASHINGTON, DC, October 12, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Team DC today announced that it has reached a definitive agreement with two new members of Team DC's 2021 travel team as it prepares to compete against Team Philadelphia in the coveted Founding Fathers Invitational ("FFI"), effective October 14, 2021.

Michael Kearns of Chevy Chase, MD carries a 6.9 index honed as a long-time member of the esteemed Columbia Country Club. Mr. Kearns is a former childhood actor turned amateur golfer and a veteran of many golf boondoggles both domestically and abroad. Mr. Kearns is a proven winner with a laser sharp focus having won multiple flights in the hotly contested Columbia CC Club Championship. "I am not just in this for the drugs, booze and time away from work and family, I am just in this for the DRUGS!" said a glossy-eyed Kearns. A dedicated pupil of Columbia Country Club head golf professional Bob Dolan's 7-4-7 Swing Thought System ® and his Stack and Jilt ™ Short Game Plan, Kearns is a true student of the game of golf. "From my early days growing up in Tuscaloosa to my time here in DC, I have never seen a man put in so much effort for so little gains as Michael Kearns. But, despite a wildly unreliable swing, Michael's dedication to working his hands raw on the rangemake him an ideal addition to Team DC's 2021 travel team", said Dolan.

Benjamin Fritz of Washington, DC brings 15.2 index with significant upside developed through decades of intense country club sports at the venerable Bridgehampton Club. Mr. Fritz attended Middlebury College and, unlike fellow Middlebury graduate and FFI Director of Player Personnel Jon Carr, excelled as a member of the Division VIII men's lacrosse team. [1] As a native of New England, Mr. Fritz developed his understanding of the foundation of championship teams watching his New England Patriots build a dynasty. "I learned that winning championships is built through deflating footballs and secretly filming opponents' practices and I plan to apply that same mindset to FFI. I am not afraid to cut a hole in my pocket to facilitate 'finding' a golf ball I hit 45 yards OB…anything for the W". Ben's dedication to winning at all costs offsets his volatile golf game, due in large part to the his inability show up to tee times on time and deficient, outdated equipment. "Despite not purchasing a new piece of golf equipment or golf apparel since the turn of the millennium, Fritz has found a way to make 'wick-in' clothing and torn golf gloves work to his advantage and really accentuates his 35 year old set of MacGregor's" commented Kim Shipman, Golf Professional and Director of Instruction at The Bridgehampton Club.

[1] Despite only 150 students per class, Mr. Fritz cannot confirm Jon Carr aka Sergio Carrcia actually went to Middlebury College and has concluded he must have been a giant nerd with no friends.

The two Team DC players being replaced for the event are Chris Connolly and Roland Miller, each four-time Team DC participants of FFI. It has been reported that both men sprained their inner and outer labia's over the weekend while on a fox hunt at Chevy Chase Club and will not be making the trip to Philadelphia. Through their agents, Messrs. Connolly and Miller commented, "We are sorry to miss this year's FFI tournament given our unfortunate injuries. We were particularly looking forward to not getting to play Aronimink Golf Club in exchange for a leisurely lunch in between rounds at Applebrook. We hope the Shenanigan brothers will not launch a social lynching campaign against us but are prepared to deal with the consequences and hope to get a look at future events so we can decline participation".

About Team DC

Team DC is a compilation of middle-aged men from the Washington, DC area dedicated to maintaining sanity, dignity and a generally positive outlook on life through annual gatherings to compete in the Founding Father's Invitational tournament. The 2021 team consists of: Matthew Hopkins, Brendan Delany, Jonathan Carr, Vince Burke, Sean Keegan, Devin Tuohey, Michael Kearns and Ben Fritz

SOURCE Team DC Public Relations

For inquiries and additional information, please contact your mother